The following is a letter from September 30, 2023, delivered from the past by FutureMe

Dear FutureMe,

I am at room right now. Sitting free. I am sad. Broke. Need Money. Going Strong for 13 days in NoFap, Happy about that. I really hope you are at a better place now. I wish that you are better than I am. I am lazy and useless, and no money, no life.

I wish you happiness and enjoyable life.

When you are reading this, I wish you are happy and smiling at this email, thinking back on how miserable you were.

You should be proud of what You have become.

I wish I don't stay like what I am now, when I read this email.
